Cheryl Reicin and Eileen McMahon recognized as leading practitioners at the 2021 LMG Life Sciences Awards

We are pleased to announce that partners Cheryl Reicin and Eileen McMahon were recognized as leading practitioners in the life sciences industry at the 2021 Legal Media Group (LMG) Life Sciences Awards.

Practice leader of Torys' Life Science Group Cheryl Reicin was presented as the recipient of this year's Canadian Financial & Corporate Attorney of the Year award, demonstrating her deep understanding of industry and client needs. In her practice, she represents a whole spectrum of biotech, medical device and health technology companies.

Chair of the firm's Intellectual Property practice and the Food and Drug Regulatory practice, Eileen McMahon was inducted into the Life Sciences Awards' Hall of Fame for her outstanding career in life sciences. She was recently ranked as the only Star Individual in Life Sciences in the 2021 Chambers Canada guide.

The LMG Life Sciences Awards are a celebration of individuals and firms who are responsible for the most innovative and challenging life sciences work from the past year. Learn more about the awards on the LMG website.
