

Mirvish Enterprises sells Mirvish Village and Honest Ed's properties to Westbank Projects

Torys acted as counsel to Ed Mirvish Enterprises with a team that included Don Roger, Sarah Crowe and Gwen Johnson.

On November 29, 2013, Ed Mirvish Enterprises Limited and its subsidiary, Bathurst Street Holdings Inc., completed the previously announced sale of its 3.47 acre site at the southwest corner of Bloor Street West and Bathurst Street, Toronto, including Mirvish Village and Toronto's first department store, Honest Ed's, to 500 Bloor Street Property Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Westbank Projects Corp. The purchase was financed using a credit facility provided by HSBC Bank Canada.

Westbank Projects is a premier real estate developer in Canada, with over C$10 billion of projects completed or under development.

Further information can be found on The Globe and Mail's website.

Services connexes

- Immobilier
- Consommation et vente au détail

Dernières nouvelles et publications

Les prix Managing IP Americas Awards récompensent Edward Fan

Lire la suite

Updates to the IESO's Long Lead-Time and LT2 Window 2 Requests for Proposals: timelines, incentives, and next steps

Stakeholders have until April 15 to submit feedback to the IESO on the revised RFPs and contract materials.

Lire la suite

Competition Bureau settlements in retirement home acquisitions highlight focus on market shares in merger reviews

Newly introduced structural presumptions are now central to merger reviews of strategic transactions.

Lire la suite