

Breakfast With Appeal

A (virtual, bring-your-own breakfast) series about the law you want to know.

Bringing you the latest in appellate case law

Featuring members of Torys' Appellate practice group—Andrew Bernstein, Yael Bienenstock, Jeremy Opolsky and David Outerbridge—Breakfast With Appeal is the must-watch series bringing you insightful and lively commentary (along with a healthy dose of hot takes) on the latest appellate court decisions across the country.

03:01

Upcoming webinars

Looking for a past webinar? Log in to our CPD library to access all BWA sessions and claim your CPD credits.

Check out the BWA podcast!

Want your Breakfast to go? Check out our Breakfast With Appeal podcast, where you can hear from Andrew, Yael, Jeremy and David wherever and whenever you're in the mood for candid commentary on Canada's latest appellate case law.

Latest publications

BWA: A conversation with Arif Virani

Former Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada—and new Torys Senior Counsel—the Hon. Arif Virani shares insights from the other side of the v.

Read More

What's new in HR law for 2026?

Developments in employment law reflect evolving workplace norms, and employers will want to review their policies to ensure they remain aligned with current expectations.

Read More

Connected Care for Canadians Act* aims to promote unobstructed access to electronic health information

Technology vendors and healthcare providers should proactively assess their alignment with Bill S-5.

Read More