Breakfast With Appeal

A (virtual, bring-your-own breakfast) series about the law you want to know.

The breakfast may be all the rejected sugar cookie fragments that never made it off the baking sheet, but the appeal remains the same: a discussion about the law you want to know about.

For our final BWA of the year, our panelists will be delivering their usual candid conversation (and helping you fulfil your end-of-year CPD goals), discussing:

- Grant Thornton v. New Brunswick and the limits of limitation periods
- Ward v. Québec and the limits of free speech
- Corner Brook v. Bailey: what gets (and stays) covered in a release?
