International Bar Association's 19th Annual International Mergers and Acquisitions Conference

The Plaza Hotel, New York

SPEAKERS

David A. Chaikof

New York Managing Partner David Chaikof will speak at the International Bar Association's (IBA) 19th Annual International Mergers and Acquisitions Conference. The two-day conference will take place on June 14 and 15 and will cover topics on some of the lessons learned and changes in deal-making during the pandemic, including hot topics in global M&A, private equity in today's world and more.

David along with fellow panelists will speak on the "Governance, stewardship and activism" session on June 15 at 4:00 p.m. The session will discuss the role and viewpoints of institutional investors, the headwinds and tailwinds for sustainability and long-term investment, and shareholder activism, both in the U.S. and internationally.

More information about this session and other can be found on the IBA's website.
