

Emily Atkinson

SENIOR DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL RESOURCES

CONTACT

Toronto: 416.865.7335

eatkinson@torys.com

Overview

Emily is a senior member of the Professional Resources team. She oversees key functions across the lawyer talent lifecycle for our Toronto associates, including integration, engagement, work allocation, performance management and alumni relations. Emily is also responsible for Torys' firmwide secondment and mentoring programs. Emily co-leads Torys' Wellness program and is a member of the Diversity Committee. She is a designated wellness navigator, has completed the Queen's University Workplace Mental Health Leadership certificate, is Mental Health First Aid trained and is a registered psychotherapist.

News

Tides are turning for mental health in the legal profession

Torys director of legal learning and professional resources Emily Atkinson addresses mental health in the legal profession.

Emily Atkinson Talks CPD with The Lawyer's Daily

View More

Professional Involvement

Emily is a local group leader for Toronto for the Professional Development Consortium and a member of the advisory group for National Association of Law Placement's (NALP) PD Quarterly.

She is also a member of the New York State Bar Association.

Education and Bar Admissions

Education

MSW, RSW and Registered Psychotherapist , 2019

University of Toronto

LLB, 2004

Osgoode Hall Law School

BA and Social Work Program (Dean's Honour List), 2001

McMaster University

Bar Admissions

Ontario, 2005

New York, 2009