Recognition and Awards

Madeleine was awarded the Silver Medal for achieving the second highest cumulative academic standing in her class at Osgoode Hall Law School. She was also awarded course prizes for achieving the highest standing in Securities Regulation and a business law intensive program.

Professional Involvement

Prior to joining Torys, Madeleine worked as a consultant at Hugessen Consulting Inc., where she advised public company boards on executive compensation and corporate governance matters.

During law school, Madeleine served as a Dean's Fellow to Professor John McCamus in the subject of contract law and was an active member of the Osgoode Society for Corporate Governance. She also volunteered as a caseworker at the Osgoode Investor Protection Clinic, where she provided pro-bono legal advice to clients who believe they suffered an investment loss as a result of wrongdoing.
