

Private Client Services

Our experience advising generations of families in a broad range of business, financial and personal matters is extensive. We offer sophisticated counsel across tax, estate planning, business ventures, and more.

Overview

Torys has worked closely with generations of individuals and families in their legal, financial and personal affairs, including estate planning, business succession, asset management, trusts and estates matters, commercial transactions and litigation and dispute resolution relating to estates.

By drawing from the firm's extensive resources, our team provides comprehensive, creative, practical and cost-effective solutions to complex problems. We are particularly mindful of the need to manage the range of services private clients often require; whether these services are legal, accounting or financial, our team can deftly assume a leadership or supporting role.
