Imperial Capital sells Clinical Division of AIM Health Group Inc.

Torys acted as counsel to AIM Health Group and Imperial Capital with a team that included Michael Akkawi, Laurie Duke, Josh Lavine, Adrienne Love, Marko Trivun (M&A), Mitch Frazer (pension and employment), Teresa Reguly (IP), Richard Johnson and Catrina Card (tax).

On July 4, 2013, Imperial Capital Group Ltd. (Imperial Capital) announced the sale of the Clinical Services business of AIM Health Group Inc., an Imperial Capital Acquisition Fund IV portfolio company.

AIM Health Group Inc. is a diversified Canadian healthcare company recognized for its leadership in pain management, infusion services, workplace health, and corporate disability management.

Imperial Capital Group Ltd. is a Toronto-based private equity fund manager that focuses on middle market buyouts, acquisitions of platform companies, and add-on acquisitions of medium sized and middle market companies in Canada and the United States.

Further information can be found on Marketwire's website.

Related Services

- \rightarrow Transactions
- \rightarrow Life Sciences
- → Private Equity and Principal Investors
- → Intellectual Property
- → Buyout Transactions
- \rightarrow Tax

 \rightarrow M&A