

Association Headquarters acquires Managing Matters

Torys acted as Canadian counsel to Association Headquarters with a team that included Don Bell, Brendan Dean and Olivia Mazza (corporate/M&A), Tom Stevenson (employment) and Benjamin Mann (tax).

On February 13, 2025, Association Headquarters, LLC (“AH”) announced the acquisition of Managing Matters (“MM”). With the acquisition, MM will integrate into AH’s operations while maintaining its strong brand, client relationships, and dedicated team. Terms of transaction were not disclosed.

The strategic acquisition strengthens AH’s position as a global leader in association management and enhances its ability to serve a diverse range of professional and trade organizations.

Further information can be found on Association Headquarters’ website.

Managing Matters is an association management firm based in Canada that is known for its innovative approach to client service and operational excellence.

Association Headquarters is a leading association management company that specializes in helping non-profit organizations achieve their mission, create value, and advance their causes, industries, and professions.

Related Services

→ M&A

→ Pensions and Employment

→ Transactions

→ Tax